

Advocacy Seminar: Adolescent Health

August 6-12, 2008

◆ Explore health issues facing young people around the world.

◆ Visit local social organizations to learn about the work being done in India, and share with participants from many nations.

◆ Use the topic as a foundation for developing the skills of Advocacy - analyzing a situation, mobilizing grassroots support, coalition building, developing a campaign strategy, and using the media

◆ Participants will return to their Member Organizations able to share their knowledge and advocate for important issues in their country.
